The people of the Crescent City are rapidly reviving under the clear skies and frosty days. The dread visitor, yellow fever, has left, and the spirits of men are once more in accord with the development of their beautiful city. As the best evidence of the growing prosperity, it is noted that the sales of tickets in the Extraordidary Grand Drawing, which takes place on Tuesday, December 10th, under the management and care of Generals Beauregard, of Louisiana, and Jubal Early, of Virginia, are greatly increased.
